Overview
This workshop will focus on the teaching of adjectives as one of the parts of speech in English. It will look at the different types of strategies in teaching adjectives and will focus on the use of listening and speaking skills.

Objectives
- To develop an understanding of the principles of teaching adjectives through the use of listening and speaking skills.
- To identify the different approaches in teaching adjectives.
- To give the participants practice in selection and design of appropriate materials in the primary English syllabus.
- To develop the students’ skills in integrating listening and speaking with reading and writing skills.

Content
Techniques for teaching adjectives through the use of Listening and Speaking skills:
- Identifying key words for adjectives.
- Looking for options in constructing sentences using adjectives.
- Activities on grid survey, dictation and following instruction.

Tasks
- Focusing and sharing problems on the difficulties in teaching the adjectives.
- Micro-teach the different strategies to teach adjectives using the listening and speaking skills.
- Sharing sessions on the strengths and weaknesses of these methods.